Talisker 18 year old 45.8%

A sophisticated and refined Talisker, if that's not an oxymoron.
But this is certainly true when compared to the 10 year old. This 18 year old is deeper too, with less of the fishnets, more of oak boat docks. Less lemongrass, more fruit gum drops. There's still that knock-out punch on the finish.
There's a fine line between polishing the rough edges of a beautifully powerful whisky and ripping its heart and soul out with a knife by dumbing it down. This whisky has not crossed that line. A fabulous whisky!
