

Talisker 175th Anniversary bottling 45.8%

A tamed Talisker. The classic Talisker personality shows seaweed, brine, peat smoke, and freshly ground pepper on the finish. There are even other interesting flavors I enjoy, notably vanilla, licorice root, charcoal, and bitter chocolate. But this whisky needs to be a little livelier to be a truly great whisky. While there's no age statement, there's older whisky in here for sure, and maybe that's part of its "reserved" nature. It certainly is a nice whisky, but I would prefer the more vibrant Talisker 18 year old - at two-thirds the cost.
