

Stranahan's 10 year old
Mountain Angel
Colorado (Batch 001)
47.3%

The nose is reticent and doesn't yield much, but candied lemon peel, strawberry, grape soda, and jasmine perfume emerge. It's super sweet and fruity on the palate, like a bag of Skittles; guava, pineapple, mango, kiwi, and cantaloupe shine, with a length of oak to temper the effusive brightness. The finish is fairly short, and overall a bit more muted than the palate suggests.

—Vol. 29, #5

