

Canadian Club
Chronicles 43 year old
The Speakeasy

45%

The third in the Chronicles series offers a slightly closed nose that soon shows high esters, cinnamon, and eggnog, while hints of mint hide among old dry barn boards in a gorgeous, creamy palate. Mild caramels fade into peppery heat, restrained grassy herbs, and pulling tannins. Burley tobacco leaves replace Canadian Club's signature dark fruits. Finishes long, hot, and vaguely dry.

—Vol. 29, #5

