

Flóki Sherry Cask-Finished Single Malt

47%

Orchard fruit, applesauce, barley sugar, macadamia nut, white pepper, and light spicy aromas, with toasted brioche bringing a touch of sweetness. The palate is fruity with apple and sultanas draped in honey and caramel, peppery spice, with orange and lemon peel and late baked citrus on the finish. A pleasing dram, though if you're drawn to Flóki looking for unconventional flavors and idiosyncratic methods, this is a more traditional whisky.
