

High Coast Timmer Single Malt

48%

Peppery spice rubs, light vanilla, and whipped cream meet a stealthy growth of grassy peat smoke, leading to aromas of rock pool salinity and breezy ozone. An arsonist in a candy store: lemon bonbon, vanilla, and chalky candies, with a building spiciness of clove and pepper bursting with a firework of smoky flavors, which clear aside for the return of sugary-sweet lemon and caramels.

—Vol. 30, #2

