

W. L. Weller 12 year old

45%

A "wheated" bourbon, meaning that it doesn't have the spicy rye notes found in a more traditional "ryed" bourbon. A pleasantly sweet, easy-going, well-balanced experience. Creamy vanilla, caramel, candied corn, and ripe berryed fruit, along with more subtle notes of glazed orange, cocoa powder, and wood shavings. If I were going to ease a new bourbon drinker into the category, I might pick this one. (Bottled for Binny's Beverage Depot).
