From Savage & Cooke in collaboration with NBA great Scottie Pippen. There is an antique shop mustiness on the nose along with grape jelly and honey on toast, the kind served at a diner. The sweetness jumps up on the palate, with candied apple, honey throat lozenge, chocolate syrup, and cinnamon-sprinkled French toast. The lengthy finish is light, rich, and well spiced. At 5 years old, this Tennessee-made whiskey shows balance and buoyancy.
