

Tobermory 15 year old

46.3%

Aged on the Scottish mainland for 14 years and then finished off in sherry casks on the Island of Mull. A fresh whisky with a hint of brine, along with richer nutty toffee and chocolate fudge, embedded with dried fruit. Delicate oak resin peppers the finish, balancing the whisky's sweetness. One of the best unpeated Tobermory whiskies (i.e. non-Ledaig) whiskies I've tasted. The sherry enhances the whiskey without dominating.
