Soft, delicate, fresh, and citrusy on the nose, with aromas of satsuma orange and lemonade. The palate is sweet, balanced, and very smooth, balancing orange and cooked pear with cocoa powder, roasted coffee beans, coffee ice cream, light nuttiness, and white pepper. The finish is long, spicy, smooth, and polished, with cinnamon stick, milk chocolate, and plenty of spice. Well-built and unified, with a marvelous chocolate sweetness as a finale.
