

Old Potrero 6 year old
48.5%

Lively, aromatic, and grain-forward, with bright notes of red fruits, black currant, and roasted caraway seeds. Lots of depth on the palate, with baked raspberry and blackberry notes. It's hot and spicy, but water quells it without losing the spice explosion, red berry notes, and roasted rye.

Warm and more mellow on the finish, with excellent integration of oak, coffee, and bitter chocolate.

Spice and tartness, with ably balanced fruit.

—Vol. 31, #2

