

Leopold Bros. Three Chamber Bottled in Bond Holiday Edition (2021 Release)

50%

Sweet fruits on the nose, with cherry, melon, and raspberry, as well as honey and fresh grain. Nicely balanced and inviting on the palate, with loads more cherry and honey sweetness balanced against herbs and grain. The finish is long, syrupy, and flavorful. There is a certain grain-influenced dryness at times, but this is a well-made whiskey with a bright future as it continues to develop. (4,000 bottles)
