This is a total fruit bomb, with cranberries, cherry tart, wild strawberries, underripe blueberries, berry cobbler, fruit snacks, and lemon pound cake on the nose. That fruit carries through to the palate, but it becomes less one-note, and vanilla frosting, honey, hints of graham cracker, and maple syrup abound. The finish is sweet and balanced, a lovely marriage of berries, fresh lemon juice, dark chocolate, and a whisper of oak char. (4,200 bottles)
