

Manatawny Six Grain

47%

Orange, vanilla, and sweet licorice candies meld with spice cabinet, herb-garden freshness, and a hint of lemon peel, against earthy, aromatic grain and oak. Dark chocolate, allspice, cocoa, and whipped cream on the palate, along with roasted almonds and a bit of lemon. The finish is long, smooth, and well-textured, offering notes of chocolate malt, nutmeg, and chocolate-covered almonds. A spiced chocolate bakery profile, with the sweetness kept in balance.

—Vol. 31, #2

