

Beyond Distilling

45%

The nose is fruit-forward and full of cherries: fresh ripe cherries, cherry cobbler, cherry coulis, chocolate-covered Bing cherries, and cherry cola. The palate is a deviation from the nose; there's instant heat, as chile-dark chocolate squares coat the mouth, accompanied by ginger, wood spice, and espresso bean. A nice lengthy finish keeps that spice going, with fresh-grated ginger and cinnamon stick lingering on.
