

Corbin Cash 5 year old Merced

45%

Rye spice is at the ready, as hot cinnamon, toasted grain, orange peel, spiced oak, and a bit of charcoal are accented by a not-unpleasant whiff of varnish coupled with fresh pickle juice. A soft sweet palate is somewhat surprising given the nose, but Frosted Mini Wheats and crystalized sugar shine brightly here, joined by vanilla extract, cloves, a touch of menthol, and subtle smokiness. A lengthy finish draws forth rich chocolate, espresso, and Ricola cough drop.

(1,200 bottles)

—Vol. 31, #2

