

Old Forester Birthday Bourbon

Spring 1990, 46.5%

Style: Bourbon Color: Antique amber Aroma: Thick, lush, very complex and nicely balanced.

Notes of polished leather and oak marry nicely with the toffee and caramel. Tobacco, raisins, and dates, add complexity and diversity. Palate: Bold and voluptuous, with notes similar to its aroma. Long, soothing finish.

General Comments: A big, broad-shouldered bourbon jam-packed with flavors that just won't quit. Most bourbons of this age and intensity are too woody. Not this one. It is very well-balanced from beginning to end. Bravo!

Price: upper $30s. Available nationwide but produced in limited quantities.
