Sugary sweetness abounds on the nose; notes of cherry cordials, sugar cookie, vanilla frosting, and strawberry shortcake, plus dried herbs and green-tea ice cream. A velvety palate brings a wallop of heat and wood. Water tames both, bringing out peanut brittle, honey bun, dark chocolate, and camp coffee. Salted caramel highlights a lengthy finish. The heat makes this a bit jagged at times, though the texture is alluring. (33,000 bottles)
