

Shelter Point Artisanal Single Malt

46%

Aromas of low tide, mushrooms, and some sawdust kick this off. As it lingers in the glass, lemon peel and cereal grains come to the fore. The palate takes a surprising turn toward sweetness, with powdered sugar, cherry pie, and green tea lemonade all present. The finish, while fruity, has a touch of smoke, giving off grilled pineapple and lightly charred apples.

—Vol. 31, #4

