

Signatory (distilled at BenRiach) 12 year old 1994 vintage

59.5%

A peated version of Benriach that was also finished in a port pipe.

There is a really nice blend of flavors here; a sweet malty foundation layered with ripe red fruit notes (raspberry, strawberry preserve, currant) and a firm blanket of smoke that goes on and on. All the flavors are bold, but they're equally balanced. Not a subtle whisky but quite entertaining. (Binny's Beverage Depot exclusive)
