

Starward Octave Barrels Single Malt

48%

Some candied notes on the nose, but also very piney, with fresh wood and hints of mint. Lots of chocolate and mint-chocolate chip ice cream on the palate, pine nuts, and notes of pine bough, menthol, dark chocolate, and coffee. This is lively and spiced, but not overly so. The finish has good length, with more fresh woodsy notes and a balanced underlying sweetness. Savory and sippable overall.
