

Greenore Single Grain

8 year old, 1997 vintage, 40%

Light, crisp, and gently sweet.
Notes of vanilla, cut hay, honey,
and lemon, with a grainy, dry bourbon-oak finish. A warm weather whisky, or as an aperitif.
Perhaps a way to introduce a vodka drinker to whiskey?

—Vol. 17, #3

