

Chieftain's (distilled at Glen Moray)

1989 vintage, 18 year old, 43%
Clean, simple, and straightforward:
malty and smooth, with cut grass, hay, a kiss of honey, and a hint of gin botanicals. A nice whisky to introduce blend drinkers to the world of single malts.
