

GlenDronach 1991
vintage

18 year old, sherry puncheon
(cask 3182), 51.7%

The variety between this series of single casks is quite extraordinary. This has a soft and light nose with some mint and liqueured fruit, and a big, rich, and impressive taste with anise and menthol, glacé cherries, and traces of mint. The finish is warming and full, with the mint and cherry theme carrying through to a slightly peppery conclusion. £71

—Vol. 19, #4

