

Kornog

57.1%

Donnay also makes a peated variant. Again, the distillery's ability to mix the heavy (in this case smoke) with the lifted is demonstrated. Think sage and rosemary, mixed with nuts and a really salty tingle that brings to mind eating samphire while the smoke wreathes the palate. Make no mistake, this is one important new whisky. £60

—Vol. 19, #4

